People Urged To Get Check For Cancer

Citizens of Torrance yesterday were urged to join in the observance of Cancer Control Month by making an appointment with their family doctor for every member of the home who has not had a physical examination this year.

Robert Jahn, South Bay area chairman for the American Cancer Society issued an appeal to every home in Torrance to make a point of having check ups for the family regularly once a year.

"Men over 45 years of age and women over 35 should see their doctors twice a year," he stated.

"Time is every citizen's best weapon against cancer," he noted. "Cancer in its early localized stages is almost always curable, but only through regular examinations can it be detected in this 'silent' stage. The longer the time interval involved before detection, the smaller the cure possibility."

He also urged every family to familiarize itself with cancer's early warning symptoms, here listed:

1. Persistent hoarseness or cough.
2. Unusual bleeding or discharge.
3. Persistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing.
4. A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere.
5. A sore that does not heal.
6. Persistent change in bowel or bladder habits.
7. Change in a wart or mole.

These danger signals do not necessarily indicate the presence of cancer, but they should always mean a visit to the family doctor.

Teenagers Who Did $2000 Damage At Two Schools Caught by Officers

Two teen-age boys have been arrested in connection with vandalism committed at Halldale and 223rd St. Schools, sheriff's juvenile officers said yesterday.

The boys did more than $1000 damage at Halldale School on Feb. 12 and about the same amount at 223rd St. School on March 31. They were located by a T-shirt that one of the boys dropped as he crawled over the fence at 223rd St. School.

Give No Reason
The boys, 13 and 14 years old, have been turned over to juvenile authorities and their parents will be asked to pay for the extensive damage to the schools. Officers said they could give no reason for their actions.

The pair also are believed to have been involved in a recent break-in at Steven M. White High School, in which food was stolen from the cafeteria icebox.

In the most recent case, at 223rd St. School, the janitor reported that she noticed that putty had been removed from a window in the cafeteria and that the icebox was opened. He boarded up the window and informed school authorities.

Boy Climbs Fence
Some time later in the afternoon, officers from the Los Angeles Schools' security section arrived and noticed a boy shimmying over the fence at the school. They were unable to catch him, but did find a T-shirt that he dropped in his flight.

Inside the office, the officers found records strewn about and dirty words and pictures painted on the walls. They followed a trail to the room of Mrs. Helen Hausman, third grade teacher, which was a shambles.

The boys apparently had torn the clock from the wall, smashed the lights, taken a hammer to the walls, threw paint around the room, painted the walls, blackboards, and desk, and smashed everything movable in the room. Smashed to splinters was an expensive guitar, a family heirloom, which Mrs. Hausman had brought to school.

Obscene phrases and pictures were written on the walls of the room. Officers followed the trail of dirty words painted on the doors of many other classrooms.

Damage at Halldale was similar.

Although the schools are insured against such damage, parents of the pair will be asked to pay for the damage.
